

Chris van Schravendijk

The MEDINE2 Thematic Network in Medical Education in Europe is building on the work of the MEDINE Network, 2004-2007. The Network is required because the education and training of medical doctors to a high standard is critical to the physical health, well-being, productivity and social cohesion of European society.

<http://medine2.com/>